SOME OF THE PRIMES IN THIS COUNTRY ARE OF FRENCH ORIGIN AND EVEN THOSE WHOSE ANCESTORS CAME FROM ENGLAND MUST LOOK TO A FRENCH ORIGIN OF THEIR SURNAME.

THE SURNAME DE LA PRYME FOUND IN FRANCE MAY HAVE GIVEN THE NAME IN MANY CASES AND THEN IT IS OBVIOUSLY A NAME OF LOCATION - TAKEN FROM SOME NOW FORGOTTON LOCALITY, KNOWN AS PRYME. USUALLY, HOWEVER, IT COMES FROM THE OLD FRENCH "PRIME," MEANING FIRST.

PRING, PRYNNE, AND PRIN ARE ENGLISH SURNAMES, DERRIVED FROM THE FIRST AND SAME SOURCE.

ONE OF THE LEADING PRIME FAMILIES IN THIS COUNTRY TRACES BACK TO JAMES PRIME, OF HUGUENOT DESCENT WHO LIVED IN DONCASTER, YORKSHIRE, ENGLAND. HE WENT FROM THENCE WITH HIS BROTHER MARK AND SETTLED IN MILFORD, CONNECTICUT, IN 1644. A GRANDSON OF JAMES WAS EBENEZER, BORN IN MILFORD, in 1700 WHO WAS GRADUATED FROM YALE IN 1718, AND BECAME A PRESBYTERIAN MINISTER. HE WENT TO LONG ISLAND WHERE HE ESTABLISHED THE PRESBYTERY OF LONG ISLAND IN 1747.

HE WAS A STAUNCH PATRIOT DURING THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR, THOUGH HE WAS QUITE AN OLD MAN AT THE TIME. HE WAS DRIVEN FROM HIS HOME AND CHURCH BY THE ENGLISH TROOPS AND HIS LIBRARY DESTROYED HE WAS MARRIED THREE TIMES. HIS WIVES WERE MARGARET SYLVESTER: EXPERIENCE YOUNGS AND HANNAH CARLL.

A SON OF EBENZER WAS BENJAMIN YOUNGS PRIME A PHYSCIAN OF LONG ISLAND WHO WAS A STAUNCH PATRIOT IN THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR. BEYOND MIDDLE AGE AT THE TIME OF THE WAR HE TRIED MANY TIMES IN VAIN TO RECEIVE A COMMISSION. HIS WIFE WAS MARY GREATON, ONE OF THEIR SONS WAS NATHANIEL SCUDDER PRIME, A PROMINENT CLERGYMAN, BORN IN HUNTINGTON, L.I. IN 1785. HE WORKED AS A CLERYMAN AND REFORMER IN SING SING AND WAS AN ADRENT TEMPERANCE ADVOCATE. HIS WIFE WAS JULIA ANN JERMAIN. ONE OF HIS SONS WAS EDWARD DORR GRIFFIN PRIME, A PROMINENT PRESBYTERIAN CLERGYMAN WHO WAS AT ONE TIME CHAPLIN OF THE AMERICN EMBASSY IN ROME: ANOTHER SON WAS SAMUEL IRENAEUS, AN EDITOR OF NOTE, AND STILL ANOTHER SON WAS WILLIAM COMPER PRIME A JOURNALIST AND ART COLLECTOR OF NOTE...

HENRY PURCELL CHAPTER DAUGHTERS OF THE
AMERICAN REVOLUTION

Harrisburg, Pa.,

May 31, 1927.

Dear Mrs. Smith;

Your letter of the 28th ult. came today. I am sorry we did not write you more carefully in regard to details. We found the record of only one Ludwick Fishburn, born 1756, died 1846. He was the son of Philip Senior. This is evident as Philip, Junior was born 1754, died 1851, and was the brother of Ludwick.

Philip, Senior, in his will, mentions sons, Philip and Ludwick. Ludwick in his will, mentions sons, Henry, John, Samuel, and Daniel.

Then you have the following;

Grandfather Henry Fishburn, born in Dauphin Co., June 3, 1792, Married Elizabeth Greiner. Was the son of Greatgrandfather Ludwick Fishburn born in Dauphin Co., Sept. 3, 1756, died Mar. 30, 1846. Was the son of

Great Great Grandfather Philip Fishburn, Senior, born in Germany May 7, 1722, died in Dauphin Co., Feb.,1795

As far as we can see, there is no doubt that the foregoing is correct and the descent is shown by the abstracts of the wills. Philip Jr. mentions his sons, Benjamin, Anthony, and Thomas, but there appears to have been only one Ludwick in Dauphin County, so there should be no doubt as to his identity.

I hope I have made myself understood and that this version will prove to be correct.

Very truly yours,

MILITARY RECORD CAPTAIN JOHN WALL

The military record of Capt. John Wall was recognized by both Virginia and Pennsylvania. After his removal to Ky., and eight years before a State, he and his six sons did valient service as "Regulators" on both sides of Ohio River , protecting the settlements against Indians and lawless refugees from the East. Agnes McDuffee, only child of Agnes and Robert McDuffee owned the farm in Freehold Township, East New Jersey on which the Battle of Monmouth was afterwards fought, August I778. The women of our family with others carried food and water to the Revolutionary Soldiers. The day was hot and none stopped to eat Mollie Pitcher, whose husband was shot with them. She took his place. We have a curious valentine made by Robert McDuffee, also an unique reticule.

Capt. Wall moved to Washington Co. Penna.,in I775; bought 405 acres called Mt. Pleasant (now Finleyville) "His massive house" is pictured in the Historical Atlas of Washington Co. Penna. We have a print of this and articles by Hon. J. Sutton Wall, Civil Draftsman, Dept. Internal Affairs, in Penna., Capt. Wall's territory was claimed by both Virginia and Penna. so his patent was not granted until after t the Revolutionary War--thus he was claimed by both States

JOHN POSTLETHWAITE COLONIAL SERVICE.

I.-Commissioner to determine the Boundary line between Maryland and Pennsylvania.

2.-He secured a meeting of the magistrates to locate the first court of Lancaster at his home, which was held there one year.

3.-He was the first County Treasurer of Lancaster Co.Pa

4.-He served on the Grand Jury.

5.-He was first Warden of St. James Church Lancaster Pa.

6.-He was known as Justice of the Peace.

I.-He was in I739, an Indian trader, as he received a license for that year. He was one of the Commissioners that ran the preliminary line between Maryland and Pennsylvania in May, I739, and he was one of the Overseers of the Poor in I843. He was a member of the Grand Jury of the County in I737, and I746. He was also a member of St. James' Episcopal Church at Lancaster, and was one of the first wardens. He must have died between I748 and I750, for it is recited in a deed from Benjamin Price (son in law), goldsmith, and Susanna Postlethwaite, his wife, to Joseph Pugh, dated April I6, I752, that a certain tripartite indenture had been nade on the 7th day of December, I750, between William Postlethwaite, eldest son and heir-at-law of John Postlethwaite, deceassed; John Miller and Benjamin Price, and also that John Postlethwaite in and by his last will and testament, dated 22 February, I748/9, save and devised "inter alia, to his son William Postlethwaite, a tract of land on the Conostoga Creek containing I33 acres." It is not known where he was buried. There is an old grave yard on the original Postlethwaite tract not far from the house, but all tombstones have long since disappeared.*Seeing the importance of securing the County Seat, he invited the magistrates and some of the prominent settlers to meet at his ordinary to consider the subject, and he provided the "temporary Quarters" in which to hold the Courts.

His tavern was widely known in those days, as it was very near the center of population of the county, It was regarded as being the most eligible location for the seat of Justice. The court met for the first time here on Aug. 5, I729. They were removed to the newly located Lancaster City, about November I730, where a court house was started in I73I.

and court house were located. (Page 235 of Report)

This warrent later was sold to sheriff Joseph Pugh, who married the widow of John Postlewaite, deceased. The location of old Conestoga was on the Conestoga River.

The courts were removed from Postlethwaite's home to Lancaster in I740, There Court House, beside holding the chart, also held the Legislature while Lancaster was the capital of Pennsylvania, from I799 to I8I2.

HISTORY

Page 228 of report of Address by Judge Landis.
Of Lancaster Co. Pa. Historical Soc.

John Postlethwaite was an Englishman by birth. He settled in Chester County, Pa., some time between 1709 and 1713. It is said that he was the son of George Postlethwaite of Millan, Cumberland Co., England.(An armigerous family) He kept an ordinary (or Post House) near the Conestoga (river) on the great road which led from Philadelphia through the Gap to the Indian town in the Manor (Of Conestoga). In 1718 Conestoga township was laid off, embracing all that part of what is now Lancaster County, between Octoraro Creek andthe main branch of the Conestoga. Postlethwaite must have come to Conotoga after that date because his name does not appear in the list of taxables of that township for the years 1725, 1726. In August 1727, his name appears in the list of licenses granted by the Court of Quarter Sessions of Chester County and on June 20, 1728, he gave his bond with Andrew Cornish and and Michael Michaelson, in the sum of L 20 each. Our records show that he was licensed by the Court of Quarter Sessions of Lancaster County from I729 to I736, inclusive------He was an intelligent and influencial settler.

Because he was chosen as the first treasurer of the county and in I746 he was one of the Justices.

The newly appointed magistrates, when a meeting was called to determine the names and boundaries of the township, met at the home of John Postlethwaite and their report, which was presented to the Justices at the same place, on August 5, I729, was confirmed John Postlethwaite

Fatal Accident

On Thursday, September II, at New Michigan a lettle village in Newtown township, Livingston county, Illinois, whereby three strong men lost their lives. New Michigan in years gone by had an academy. On the rrounds where the school house stood was an old well which was ocasionaly used by neighbors. On the morning of the accident Isaac N. Rumery a man only son of Moses Rumery a man of 34 yrs 5 months and I6 days of age went over th Clark Cusich's on whose farm the well was, to help clean out the well. He went down in the well, which was about 32 feet deep by the aid of a rope. When near the water he suddenly fell as was supposed accidentally, into the water. Clark Cusich was immediatly lowered into the well to help Mr. Rummery but he too fell from the rope into the water. A young man named James Schofield aged I9 years and a nephew of Clark Cusick's was lowered down into the well and he too became suffocated by the foul gases which caused the death of the two men who went down before him. The bodies of the three men were recovered with hooks. It was indeed a sad day to the neighborhood.

Isaac N. Rummery leaves a wife and three children his aged parents and a host of friends to mourn his untimely end. He was a kind upright honest man. He was a volunteer in the 52d regiment of the Illinois volunteers, and was enrolled on the 5th of February 1874, to serve three years or during the war. He was also master of the Newtown grangem No.674. His death is greatly felt and lamented by all. He was a zealous worker in every capacity he was called to fill. As a master of the grange he was always at his post a zealous worker in the cause, At the next meeting of the grange after his death, remarks were made by many members and a feeling of sympathy was manifested by all at the meeting. His name will long be remembered by the brothers and sisters of the order. He has leftbehind him preseptd and examples of which every sister and brother will long admire and respect. He emigrated with his father from the State of New York in an early day,and settled in this State. A full expression was made by the entire community with their presence at the ground to witness the funeral of the three unfortunate men.
